

SEPONL
Southeastern Pennsylvania
Organization of Nurse Leaders

The Southeastern Pennsylvania Organization of Nurse Leaders (SEPONL) was chartered in 1986 and is an affiliate of the Pennsylvania Organization of Nurse Leaders (PONL).

SEPONL is a non-profit organization that promotes excellence in the practice of nursing administration.

SEPONL's membership now exceeds 200 members and provides an excellent vehicle for nurse leaders to network with colleagues, receive valuable educational programs, and participate in expanding the voice of nursing leadership within Pennsylvania and the region.

For information on joining PONL and SEPONL, visit the Pennsylvania Organization of Nurse Leaders website at: www.ponl.net

SPRING CONFERENCE
2018:
Creating Safer Spaces:
LGBT Cultural Competency
for Nurse Leaders

Keynote Speaker

Nay Petrucelli, MS

Nay Petrucelli is proud to serve as the Professional Development Coordinator at the Mazzone Center. For years, he worked as an educator in a wide range of community and juvenile justice settings, raising eyebrows from students across NYC and Illinois when he passionately argued in algebra's defense. As a proud New Yorker living in the Midwest, Nay researched the impact of sex trafficking legislation on juveniles and conducted transgender competency trainings for providers in Central Illinois. He is proud to bring his policy research, education, and LGBT background to Mazzone.

Speaking Sessions:

1. SWBAT: Understand the spectra model of gender and sexuality and corresponding terminology.
2. SWBAT: recount best practices in personal and institutional practice that address areas of disparity.
3. SWBAT: Increase comfort level in having conversation with clients.

Additional Speakers:

Robert Bettiker, MD, MGA, FACP

Ben E. Moore, BS
